Request Information

(<https://www.saintmarys.edu/admission-aid/request-information>)

We look forward to working with you and your family. Whether you're just beginning your college search or narrowing down your options, your admission counselor is a great resource for:

- Answering your questions about admission policies and deadlines.
- Understanding the admission application requirements and timeline.
- Helping you to determine if Saint Mary's is a good fit, based on your interests, goals, and qualifications.
- Getting information about Saint Mary's student activities and organizations.
- Learning about the unique student community Saint Mary's shares with the University of Notre Dame and the tri-campus community.
- Understanding the application requirements and deadlines for need-based and merit-based financial aid.
- Demystifying the admission review process—your admission counselor reads your application first and acts as an advocate for you within the admission committee.

Connecting with your admission counselor is easy!

- Find your admission counselor below and email them directly
- Complete this simple form and we'll add you to our mailing list
- Email the Office of Admission at admission@saintmarys.edu or the Office of Graduate Admission at graduateadmission@saintmarys.edu
